How to make your educational choices?

STEP 1

Read the following questions and think about your answers

1. What do you like?
2. What are you good at?
3. What you usually do in your free time? (hobby)

Instructions:

The first thing that is important to understand is that question 1. and question 3. are different. The first one can be a thing which you can't or don't usually do – for example – I like fashion clothes, but I don't usually go shopping.

The third should be a thing that you can and enjoy doing – for example – I like watching tennis and I train tennis.

STEP 2

Write down your answers. For example:

1. Piano music (It is not necessary that you can play the piano)
2. Languages
3. Reading books

STEP 3

Try to combine at least 2 things from your answers and think about a job which requires those skills

Example:

Combining answers 2. and 3.

1. I can speak Bulgarian, English and German
2. I like reading books

therefore → I can be a translator

STEP 4

Think about that job and get informed about what one person does, when he/she works as a translator. And then think about that if:

YOU would enjoy doing it?

YOU would make a fortune doing it?

STEP 5

If not, repeat the task.

Preparing for Future Jobs

In the beginning of the 21st century more and more people in our society do not feel ready for the future. They do not know how to choose a job and how to prepare for it. At a result, the labour market becomes unstable, the rates of youth unemployment rise causing difficulties to the whole economy. Many young people lose for the whole their future lives. But why should this happen?

In our terms of uncertainty, future may cause fear deeply in the souls and hearts of today's people. However, future is coming irrevocable, taxing for victims those who are not ready for it and dedicating them forever. The only way to survive the 21st century and success in it is to prepare for the future before it has come.

Preparing for future jobs is an essential , but not so difficult thing to do. The first and most important step is to see what are interests are and decide what we want to work. Then, we should choose if our personal qualities are suitable for doing this certain job. After this comes the education-we should choose to study the specially witch is required for our dream job. Finally, we can start losing for companies and free places.

Surviving the 21st century is an easy task which every little child is capable of completing successfully. Future is the life of all of us and life is a game, we should just learn how to play it.

Do and don't on a CD

Currently the most important thing to do when you are looking for a job is a good cv. For many people it could become a problem, because they might don't have experience on doing it or they don't learn how to structure the information.

What we should include in a CV?

- Identification: name and short name, ID, where place and what date did you born., address, mobile phone, e-mail
- academic studies: what ND WHERE DID YOU STUDIED
- professional experience: where you worked before
- personal skills
- digital skills
- other thinks about you, like what languages do you speck, your communicational skills
- other things that you love and could be valued for the job, like driving lessons.

Working in another country

- 🚩 if you want to live with a roommate you should choos them carefully, because they can steal your stuff in order to make more money
- ❖ you shouldn't spend the money on unnecessary things
- if you want, you can take an extra job in order to cover all your costs
- you may learn their cultural differences and how to behave like them.
